Dear Marty,

Thanks for the card.

Used what you sent in an Afterword for Walketh the Watchman. Thanks.

I do not know what interest you might have, if any, but you may want to remember that there is a considerable volume in undated rough draft form about which Wrono knows and all of which will be at Hppd.

There are copies of much of it around with friends.

If you are in the area with a little time stop off and I can give you any indication.

Have a good holiday and a good year,

Harold
